

ALBERT EINSTEIN

10 Interesting Facts

• Did you know that •

Einstein was born in Ulm, Germany on March 14, & died in Princeton, New Jersey on April 18, 1955.

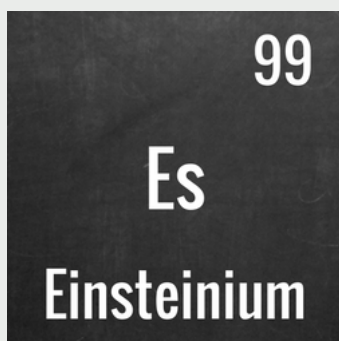

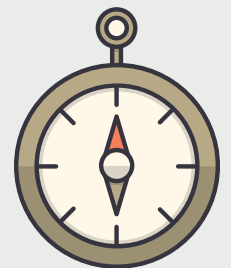

He become a US citizen in 1940.

In 1933, he was visiting the US and that same time Adolf Hitler came in to power. Since he was Jewish, Einstein choose not to go back to Germany.

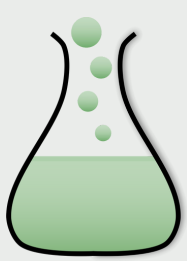

At 26 years old, Einstein published four papers! The "world's most famous equation" $E=Mc^2$, Quantum Theory, Brownian Motion, & Electrodynamics of Moving Bodies.

His love for science come from a pocket compass he father showed him at the age of 5. He was curious why the needle always pointed in a certain direction. The rest is history!

Just after his death in 1955, the recently discovered element with Atomic # 99 was given the name "Einsteinium" in his honor.

He was a simple man. He wished people would be respected for their humanitarian work & thoughts, instead of nationality & origin.

He was offered President of Israel. He declined stating that he did not have the natural aptitude & experience to deal with people properly.

He never wore socks! He thought they were a pain! And besides, he would always get holds in them!

He loved music! He said, "If I were not a physicist, I would probably be a musician!"

www.SarahLynGay.com