Mother Teresa

Saint

- Mother Teresa was an inspiration to countless millions for her lifelong devotion to the neediest and most vulnerable of the world.
- The selflessness and sacrifice with which she lived her own life made her an international symbol of charitable work.
- The love and compassion she showed the destitute of all faiths won her a Nobel Peace Prize in 1979. She donated it entirely to the poor.
- Mother Teresa found her inspiration in Catholic teachings.
- Mother Teresa was born with the name Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu. She was born in Skopje, Macedonia on August 26, 1910.
- Her family was of Albanian descent.
- At the age of twelve, she knew she had to be a missionary to spread the love of Christ.
- At the age of 18, she left her home in Skopje and joined an Irish community of nuns with missions in India called the Sisters of Loreto.
- She won widespread affection and admiration in her adopted home of Calcutta, India by respecting local customs and beliefs, and always placing our common humanity above religious divisions.
- By 2013, the charitable organization she had set up called the Missionaries of Charity, had spread to 700 missions in 130 countries. They provided soup kitchens, centers for family assistance, orphanages, schools, hospitals and homes for people with diseases such as leprosy, AIDS and tuberculosis.
- In 2016, Mother Teresa was canonized by the Roman Catholic Church as Saint Teresa.

Mother Teresa Quotes

- It's not about how much you do, but how much love you put into what you do that counts.
 - Peace begins with a smile.
- Be faithful in small things because it is in them that your strength lies.
- Spread love everywhere you go. Let no one ever come to you without leaving happier.
 - We ourselves feel that what we are doing is just a drop in the ocean. But the ocean would be less because of that missing drop.
 - Intense love does not measure, it just gives.
- Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love.
- Kind words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless.
- The hunger for love is much more difficult to remove than the hunger for bread.
 - If you can't feed a hundred people, then feed just one.
- Yesterday is gone. Tomorrow has not yet come. We have only today. Let us begin.
 - If you judge people, you have no time to love them.
- Love cannot remain by itself -- it has no meaning. Love has to be put into action, and that action is service.
 - The most terrible poverty is loneliness, and the feeling of being unloved.
- I want you to be concerned about your next-door neighbor. Do you know your next-door neighbor?
 - I am not sure exactly what heaven will be like, but I know that when we die and it comes time for God to judge us, he will not ask, 'How many good things have you done in your life?' rather he will ask, 'How much love did you put into what you did?'
